

Horseshoe Crescent, Garrison Location
Guide Price £600,000 - £625,000

This Grade II Listed Victorian home has been beautifully updated while preserving its architectural charm, blending historical elegance with contemporary living. Impressive high-level smooth plastered ceilings create a sense of spaciousness, while the inviting ground floor features a warm reception hallway with ample storage and a guest WC. The living room showcases original tall sash windows with views across the Horseshoe Grounds and period-matching wall panelling. The semi-open plan dining area leads to a stunning kitchen with high-quality cabinetry, integrated appliances, and impressive quartz worktops.

All of the THREE spacious double bedrooms come with fitted wardrobes. The truly 'standout' hotel-inspired four-piece family bathroom features high-end fixtures including Marshall & Bull tiling, underfloor heating and a show-stopping freestanding 'Solid Surface Stone Resin' Aquarøc bath offering a stylish, relaxing experience.

Luxurious solid walnut flooring runs throughout the home, adding warmth and sophistication. Recent upgrades include a new boiler and traditional-style column radiators that enhance the period aesthetic. The original sash windows have recently undergone a full refurbishment by a carpenter, with new ropes and adjusted weights, and have been freshly painted both inside and out. The property boasts a beautiful entrance courtyard garden for privacy together with a detached garage.

Ideally situated in this sought-after location, the home offers breathtaking views over the picturesque Horseshoe Parade Ground and the historic clock tower.

This wonderful residence is nestled in the heart of the historic Shoebury Garrison, a region of national significance celebrated for its rich history and archaeological sites. Surrounded by nearby beaches, parkland, and a nature reserve, it offers an intriguing living environment. Just a brief stroll from the beachfront, the area features a cricket pitch, the iconic Clock Tower overlooking Horseshoe Crescent, the esteemed Hinguar Primary School, and a local convenience store. The C2C mainline railway provides direct services to London Fenchurch Street in approximately one hour. Residents can enjoy award-winning East Beach, local pubs and restaurants, and a variety of primary and secondary schools.

A viewing is best appreciated through an internal visit, allowing you to fully experience the meticulous care and attention that have gone into this sensational home.
